

Downtown Campus

St. Vincent Charity Medical Center, founded on its existing site in 1865 by the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine, is the oldest private hospital in Cleveland. A full-service, Catholic teaching hospital, it serves the downtown Cleveland community, surrounding neighborhoods and outlying suburban areas through a mix of surgical and medical services.

Licensed Beds	438
Bed Capacity	200
Average Daily Census	120
Physicians	329
Employees	937
Internal Medicine Residents	52

Scope of Services

Spine and Orthopedic Institute
Center for Bariatric Surgery
Department of Behavioral Health
(including acute, emergency, chemical dependency and geropsychiatry)
Noninvasive cardiology

stvincentcharity.com

We are all caregivers.

ST. VINCENT CHARITY MEDICAL CENTER
weareallcaregivers.com | A Ministry of the Sisters of Charity Health System